

AVERAGE MAN

Text von Ilse Zacharias

I'm not the man you're looking for I'm not the man whom you adore no prince out of your fairy tale but just a normal simple male (just an average man)

I'm an average man
not the one you see
just an average man
that's reality
Just look closely at me
and see what I am
(and) let me be again
(just) an average man!

no hero, no celebrity
not like the picture you paint of me so let me be what I wanna be not more not less- (let me be) just me!
(just an average man)

No don't believe, what you are told don't listen to those lies!
don't put me in a frame of gold,
but just believe your eyes!

I'm an average man
not the one you see
just an average man
that's reality
Just look closely at me
and see what I am
(and) let me be again
(just) an average man!
